DAMAGING TESTIMONY

Witnesses in Youtsey Trial Make Startling Disclosures.

JURY TAKEN TO SCENE OF TRAGEDY.

Lieut Ricketts Testified Youtsey Told Him the Way to Settle Gubernatorial Contest Was to Put Goebel Out of the Way.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 9.—The first witness Tuesday in the Youtsey trial was Dr. Ely of Frankfort, who told of the post mortem examination of Goebel's body, and corroborated the other physicians who have testified. Ex-Treasurer Walter Day said Youtsey told him he could settle the contest for $300, but refused to tell how he would do it. Arthur Branch of Frankfort said he delivered a one-pound package to Youtsey for the Adams Express Jan. 24 sent from Cincinnati. Sam Shepard of Frankfort saw Youtsey about a minute after the shooting, running through the hall of the executive building from the east entrance with a pistol in his hand.

George L. Burns, auditor's clerk at that time, saw Youtsey and Dr. Johnson, from the mountains, examining a box of cartridges, and Johnson said he would take the cartridges as they fitted the gun.

Lieutenant Ricketts of Knox county again told his story about Youtsey telling him in the agricultural office that the only way to settle the contest was to put Mr. Goebel out of the way; that he (Youtsey) had $100 of his own money to help put him out of the way and a dozen others would give a like amount. That Goebel could be killed from the executive building and the man who fired the shot could escape through the basement; that his (Youtsey's) job depended on this contest and he wanted it settled his way. He repeated the testimony given in the Powers trial about Youtsey's movements the day of the assassination. According to this story Youtsey posted men in the hallway of the executive building and told them something was going to happen and a man would come down the stairway when they could all go out together. Witness did not remember, but was across the street when the shots were fired. When Colonel Nelson cross-examined him he said he did not know the name of a single one of the men who went with him and Youtsey to the executive building, but he thought they were from Whitley, Harlan and Bell counties. At 10:15 a. m. court adjourned to take the jury to Frankfort. Youtsey and his attorneys and two attorneys for the commonwealth accompanied the jury.

NOT SURE OF IT.

Corpse May Have Been Substituted For Miss Defenbach.

Toronto, Oct. 9.—Assistant Supreme Ranger Harper of the Independent Order of Foresters, in which Miss Defenbach of Chicago was insured, says the order's agents in Chicago were not certain that Miss Defenbach had actually died. It might yet turn out, he said, that the case was one of substitution and that the body cremated was not that of the young woman upon whose life policy was originally taken.

Statement by Smiley.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Frank H. Smiley, one of the principals in the alleged insurance conspiracy case, involving the sudden death of Miss Marie Defenbach, has made a statement in which he says Dr. Unger and F. Wayland Brown were the moving spirits in the alleged crime, Dr. Unger being the prime mover, and that he himself played but a minor part. He admitted that his engagement to Miss Defenbach, on the strength of which he is supposed to have been made a beneficiary of her insurance policies, was a farce.

Riots in Porto Rico.

New York, Oct. 9.—A dispatch from San Juan, P. R., says one man was killed and two injured in a political street riot in Guayama, which lasted all night. Animosity between Federals and Republicans is increasing as the time for the elections approaches, and all over the island are evidences that trouble may break out at any moment.

Paris, Oct. 9.—It is semi-officially announced that news received here from China is more reassuring than English dispatches make out; that an agreement between the powers will be arrived at on the basis of M. Delcasse's note; that the reported arrival of Li Hung Chang at Peking has been confirmed, and that confirmation has also been received of the degradation of Prince Tuan.

SOLVING A MYSTERY.

Affidavit Kept in Pickle For the Valet of Millionaire Rice.

New York, Oct. 9.—Frederick House, counsel for Albert T. Patrick and Charles Jones, principals in the William M. Rice case, charged in filed complaint of forging the name of Rice to a check for $25,000, purporting to have been drawn in Patrick's favor, on Lewenson & Sons, bankers, called on his clients in the counsel room of the Tombs Tuesday. Mr. House said he hardly expected to offer bail for the prisoners.

In connection with the statement by the police that Walter O. Wetherbe, who is in the office of S. M. Swenson & Sons, had said that Jones had endeavored to get him to draw up with him a document purporting to be Mr. Rice's last will in which each of them would get a good share of the estate, Mr. Wetherbe said that an affidavit to that effect was made last January and held for possible future use.

MARTYRS IN CHINA.

Recapitulation of Missionaries Killed And Missing.

New York, Oct. 9.—A complete list of Protestant missionaries known to have been killed from the beginning of the Boxer movement to Sept. 5, has been received by the American Bible society from Rev. John R. Hykes, D. D., its agent in Shanghai. In the list there are 173 people killed and missing; of the latter very few, if any, will escape. Of these 66 are men, 73 women (41 married and 32 single), and 39 children. In the total there are 69 Americans, of whom 25 are men, 24 women (16 married and 8 single) and 20 children. Total killed, about whose death there can not be any question, 11 men, 6 married women, 13 single women, 13 children, total 43, of whom 3 men, 1 married woman, 6 single women, 3 children, total 13, were Americans. Of those in Tai Yuen Fu who were unquestionably massacred, July 9, 10 were men, 9 married women, 4 single women, 7 children, total 30, all British.

There are still some missionaries in the provinces of Kansuh and Kweichow, who have not been heard from for some time, but there is good reason to hope that they will get to places of safety.

Work of Years Wiped Out.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—In a letter to Miss E. Ward of the Woman's Presbyterian board of missions, Mrs. L. B. Neal, a missionary, says that the Boxer uprising in China has wrought irreparable injury to missionary work in China. The writer says: "The work of years is wiped out, the Christians terrified, scattered, robbed of their all, and many of them massacred, and all Manchuria, Chihli and Shan Tung already swept clean of all missionaries, and the first two of all large mission stations, while the whole interior of China, is being cleared of foreigners of every description."

Wu Suggests a Plan.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Chinese Minister Wu Ting Fang says that if the powers regard it as essential that the emperor and empress dowager should return to Peking he is confident this can be brought about by giving positive assurance for the personal safety of their majesties and then, as plain evidence of this assurance, directing that the bulk of the allied forces now at Peking be withdrawn to Tien Tsin, Yang Tsun or some other point, leaving only a few hundred troops at Peking as a guard.

Cabinet Meeting.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Tuesday's cabinet meeting which lasted two and a half hours, was devoted exclusively to the Chinese situation. The answer of this government to the French note practically was decided upon and will be put in form for transmission to the French government very soon. Its substance was not made public and will not be until it is delivered to the French minister for transmission to his government.

CAMPAIGN WARMS UP.

Meiklejohn Writes Bryan About the Slavery in Sulu.

BRYAN'S TOUR THROUGH ILLINOIS.

Prohibition Tourists Return to Chicago and Start Out Upon the Final Trip—Roosevelt in St. Louis—Budget of Politics.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Acting Secretary Meiklejohn of the war department sent the following letter dated Oct. 6 to Hon. W. J. Bryan: Dear Sir—In the press reports of your address at Tipton, Ind., in which you referred to the overthrow of human slavery in the United States, resulting from the success of the armies of the Union, you are also reported as saying in that connection: "We fought then for the adoption of a constitutional amendment that provided that no man could own a slave, and yet before the Philippine war was ended, we have the Sulu treaty which recognizes slavery." Permit me to invite your attention to the following extract from the treaty of the secretary of war to Major General E. S. Otis, commanding the United States forces in the Philippines under date of Oct. 27, 1899: "The president instructs me to advise you that the agreement signed Aug. 30, 1899, between Brigadier General John C. Bates, representing the United States, of one part, the Sultan of Jolo, the Dato Rajah Muda, the Dato Atlik, the Dato Calbi and the Dato Joakanain of the other part, is confirmed and approved, subject to the action of congress provided for in that clause of the treaty of peace between the United States and Spain which provides, 'the civil rights and the political status of the native inhabitants of the territory hereby ceded to the United States shall be determined by congress,' and with the understanding preservation, which should be distinctly communicated to the Sultan of Jolo that this agreement is not to be deemed in any way to authorize or give the consent of the United States to the existence of slavery in the Sulu archipelago, a thing which is made impossible by the 13th amendment to the constitution of the United States." It is possibly unnecessary to call your attention to the fact that in the absence of the approval of the president it is impossible for us to "have the Sulu treaty" or any other treaty.

Bryan in Illinois.

Quincy, Ills., Oct. 9.—The special train bearing William J. Bryan and party reached Quincy at an early hour. Neither Mr. Bryan nor any one in the party had arisen. Calls of the crowd for Mr. Bryan and the beating on the windows soon aroused the occupants of the train. Mr. Bryan had only time to get a cup of coffee before he was escorted to a carriage and to Washington park. Notwithstanding the early hour there was a throng of people at the station, among them a number of marching clubs which acted as escort to the speaking grounds. Mr. Bryan spoke on the general issues of the campaign. The next stop after Quincy was at Camp Point, where Mr. Bryan spoke on the rear platform of his car. At Golden, the next stop, Mr. Bryan discussed imperialism.

Pettigrew Challenges Hanna.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Oct. 9.—Senator Pettigrew issued a public challenge to Senator Hanna, who is coming to South Dakota on a speaking tour, to a joint debate on the subject of trusts, the administration's treatment of Cuba, Porto Rico and Philippines, and armour plate contracts.

Hanna Will Ignore It.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Senator Hanna when shown a copy of Senator Pettigrew's challenge to a joint debate in South Dakota said he would pay no attention whatever to the matter.

Prohibition Emissaries.

Logansport, Ind., Oct. 9.—The Prohibition special left Indianapolis over the Pennsylvania road and made its first stop at Kokomo. At Logansport Woolley made a 15-minute speech to a large crowd. Stops were made at Watska, Chenoa and Gardner in Illinois, Chicago being reached at 6:40 o'clock for the night meeting. The special left Chicago at 11:30, after the evening meeting, for an extended trip through the west.

Roosevelt in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 9.—Governor Roosevelt breakfasted late at his hotel and after meeting a number of callers, spent the morning in resting. At 12:30 o'clock the governor visited the Merchants exchange, where he responded to a hearty reception with a short speech. Later in preference to a carriage drive that had been planned, Governor Roosevelt took a horseback ride through the boulevards.

Cockran Recovered.

Kansas City, Oct. 9.—W. Bourke Cockran of New York has practically recovered from his illness and will resume his speechmaking tour Wednesday. Mr. Cockran has decided to deliver a speech at Leavenworth, Kan., Wednesday night and at Omaha Thursday night.

UNSEEMLY WRANGLE

Between President and Former President of Canadian Railway.

London, Oct. 9.—There was a sensational scene at the meeting of the shareholders of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada, between Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, president of the road and Sir Henry Tyler, the company's former president. Sir Charles Wilson in addressing the meeting said he received a letter from Sir Henry W. Tyler, former president of the road, expressing disapproval of the reorganization and asking that the letter be read before the meeting. Sir Charles declared the vile language employed by Sir Henry justified him in putting the letter into the fire. He continued his denunciation of the former president until the audience rose, crying: "Put it in the fire!" "Burn it." There was a scene of great disorder and then there arose a cry: "Tyler is here." In a moment the venerable figure of ex-President Tyler was seen walking toward the directors' rostrum. Amidst a roar of hisses and groans the voice of Sir Henry was drowned, but he continued waving his arms and shouting inaudible charges against Sir Charles who stood up and in equally heated language absolutely denied Sir Henry's allegations and abused his administration. Half of the time Sir Henry was on his feet endeavoring to interrupt and the extraordinary spectacle was presented of the president and ex-president of a great railroad standing before a hoisting audience, both of them shouting at once and neither speaker being audible. It was only when several persons stepped forward with the intention of hustling Sir Henry Tyler out of the room that he ceased speaking. The meeting then by a large majority approved the directors' plan to improve the Chicago Grand Trunk with a guarantee of interest on bonds.

Somewhat Defective.

New York, Oct. 9.—The United States torpedo boat Somers left this port for Philadelphia by the outside route, which it is reported she will be able to travel by hugging close to the Jersey coast. Much interest is manifested in the trip as this is the first trip she has made since she was bought from the German government and brought across the Atlantic on the deck of an ocean liner. The Somers was bought new as something specially fast, but when she arrived here it was found her frame work was so weak, that it had badly sprung and examination of her machinery revealed many other defects. She has been undergoing reconstruction at the Brooklyn navy yards.

CLERK'S VACATION

Gave Bank Officials Opportunity to Find a Shortage.

New York, Oct. 9.—P. H. Gilhooley, counsel for the Elizabethport, N. J., banking company, announced that William Schriber, a missing clerk of the bank, was a defaulter to the amount of $50,000 and that the bank directors had made good the amount of the shortage. Among the directors is United States Senator John T. Kean. Schriber had been in the employ of the banking company since its incorporation, 10 years ago. He started from Elizabethport Aug. 2, and was supposed to be on his vacation. While he was away his accounts were examined and the shortage discovered.

Requisition For Rockefeller.

St. Louis, Oct. 9.—Requisition papers issued by Governor Sayres of Texas were served on Governor Roosevelt at the Planters hotel for the extradition of John D. Rockefeller, Henry M. Flagler and other Standard Oil magnates, who are wanted in Texas for alleged violation of the anti-trust law. Governor Roosevelt said he could not act on the requisition as long as he is out of the state of New York, as he is technically not governor. He said he would look into the case when he returned to New York.

Wool Market Drags.

Boston, Oct. 9.—While there have been some sales in the wool market this week the demand is only for pressing needs and the manufacturers show no inclination to buy ahead.

Help From Honolulu.

Honolulu, Oct. 2, via San Francisco, Oct. 9.—By the steamship Australia the city of Honolulu sends $3,300 for the aid of the Galveston sufferers.

LULL IN THE STRIKE.

All Concerned Apparently Awaiting Outcome of Convention.

MORE OPERATORS OFFER INCREASE.

Preparations Being Perfected For The Conference—Big Demonstration to Be Held at Scranton Wednesday Afternoon.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 9.—The A. S. Van Wickle estate, operating the Coleraine and Milnesville collieries and Calvin ardee & Co., owners of the Lattimer mines have posted notices offering the 10 per cent advance offered, the strike workers similar to notices of other companies. There are only four other individual operators in this region that have not yet offered the increase, among them being from Markle & Co. These firms, however, are expected to make wage concession within the next few days. If they don't, and the miners' convention decides to accept the 10 per cent advance offered, the strike leaders say they will fall in line.

There were no marches Tuesday, but the usual crowds gathered in the vicinity of the collieries that are still working for the purpose of getting the men to refrain from going to work. There were no disturbances reported.

Ready For the Convention.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 9.—Music hall, a theater adjoining the district headquarters and capable of seating 1,000 people, has been secured for Friday's conference of the United Mine Workers. The national headquarters will be at the St. Charles hotel, a block and a half away. President Mitchell and his staff will come here early Wednesday morning and the probabilities are that the headquarters will be maintained in this city until the strike is over, as this is the metropolis of the anthracite region. The big demonstration Wednesday afternoon being concluded, the work of arranging the preliminaries of the convention will be attacked.

Mitchell Welcomed.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 9.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, who came here to take part in a labor demonstration was welcomed in an enthusiastic manner by thousands of mine workers in this section of the Schuylkill valley. The city was profusely decorated and all business houses closed at noon. A parade of 6,000 strikers marched during the early afternoon after which President Mitchell spoke at a mass meeting.

Inroads in Panther Creek Mines.

Mauch Chunk, Pa., Oct. 9.—In the Panther Creek valley about 900 mine workers are out at Coaldale and vicinity. Three mines of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company are affected. The company's officers are doing all in their power to keep their men at work. The strike leaders, however, assert that they will succeed in tying up the region in a day or two.

Falling Into Line.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 9.—The Susquehanna Coal company, which is operated by the Pennsylvania road will, it is stated on unquestionable authority, grant the 10 per cent net increase in wages that has been offered by other companies and operators. The advance, however, will most likely not be announced until the men have returned to work.

More Miners Quit.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—Indications are that the Williamstown collieries will have to shut down for lack of hands. Monday there were 350 men out and Friday 150 more remained away from work. The men are marching at intervals but thus far there has been no rioting.

Boers Leaving the Transvaal.

Lorenzo Marques, Oct. 8.—Hundreds of Boers with their families are fleeing from the country of their birth to begin life again in some other country. Most of these have America as their ultimate destination. Two German ships left last week, carrying 1,200 Boers. They were closely followed by two French ships with 950 souls from the Transvaal, mostly women and children. All of these belonged to the better class of Boers and all were bound for Holland.

Terre Haute People Walk.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 9.—Employees of the Terre Haute Electrical railway went on strike and as a result no cars were started and no electric lights or power are in service. The men say they were justified in striking because the management refused to yield to any of the demands made by them. The company says it will not yield and boasts that the men will lose sympathy because they struck during the state fair and will thereby lose the strike.

BOURKE COCHRAN ON JEFFERSON AND MCKINLEY.

"Jefferson took territory to avoid war; McKinley is making war to take territory. Jefferson took contiguous territory to do justice and avoid the provocations of war in the future; McKinley is taking useless and remote territory, which, if he succeeds in subduing, will cause future contests without number. Jefferson took territory to incorporate into a union of states and extend over it the beneficent influence of our Constitution and the glory of our flag; McKinley is seizing territory, not to expand our Constitutional government over it, but to turn it over to officeholders, to be exploited and plundered by syndicates and favorites."

JIM KEHOE is a man of parts. He is young, vigorous and brilliant. He is as brave as a lion, and true as steel. He has sense; lots of it; and when he goes to Congress he will reflect credit on the district, and do himself honor.

WITH Jim Kehoe in Congress, should commissioners from the Boer republic come before that body, pleading for a word of encouragement, you can mark it down that they will find at least one man there to advocate their just cause.

SHOULD such a terrible accident befall us as McKinley's re-election, one thing is certain, the "Spineless Statesman" from Vanceburg, will have no say in the appointment of our postmasters, unless it be just as any other private citizen.

RUSSELL SAGE's New York bank has just declared a quarterly dividend of 25 per cent. "Uncle Russ" will probably purchase another $9 suit and drop a dime instead of a nickel into the church contribution box.—Exchange.

And since the articles of consumption used by the workman has increased about 25 per cent. without a corresponding increase in wages, it will be but a short time until he becomes the "forked thing itself," while the Lord will have to accept his intentions for deeds, in the absence of something more substantial.

If Judge Evans would only devote half as much of his energy to the destruction of the work of trusts in Kentucky, as he does to the protection of the negro from "intimidation" by Democrats, there would be less enslavement of the white people in the State. And pursuing this plan further, he might find some antiquated Federal statute for the prevention of the use of Republican boodle in the State this fall, and discover some method for the punishment of "Honest Election Leaguers" who buy State Senators in the interest of "civil liberty." But he won't.

MR. YERKES has, as yet, failed to answer Gov. Beckham's question, as to whether or not he would issue requisitions for Taylor and Finley, indicted in this State, in the event of his election, as Governor. We admit that this is a very weighty question, and Mr. Yerkes should be given plenty of time to answer it. Because, if he says he will grant such requisitions he will make the Republicans angry, and if he says he will not, he arrays all law respecting citizens against him. In fact, he stands in great peril of being gored by either horn of the dilemma. Perhaps he will not answer at all, but rear back upon his dignity and reply as Fallstaff did when Prince Hal had bared his villiany. "Give you a reason upon compulsion! If reasons were as plentiful as blackberries, I would give no man a reason upon compulsion."

THE Democrats have been disposed to refer to William Sylvester Taylor's hurried and precipitate departure for Indiana as an indication of his guilty connection with the fiendish assassination of Gov. Goebel; as verifying the theory that the "guilty flee" when pursued by a remorseless conscience, which Shakespeare says, "does make cowards of us all." But one thing which was never entirely clear to us is why he sought Indiana. What was his particular attraction there? True, he was assured of Mount's protection, but then, Ohio's Governor was a Republican, who would surely have received this martyr to "civil liberty" with wide extended arms. While the main portion of the Indiana people are a fair sample of humankind, they have never been especially marked as crack shots, feudists, bull-dozers and intimidators; and, with the exception of ballot box stuffing and hanging of horse thieves by a mob, we could see nothing of that "one touch of nature" which made Taylor and the Hoosieries akin. But recent developments of postal conditions in Cuba has solved the problem to our satisfaction; and it is this: You see the laws which maintain this earth while it revolves in a mosphere, in other words, the centrifugal and centripetal forces require that the equilibrium of the earth should be maintained at all hazards; and since Neely finds it exceeding pleasant to remain in Cuba since appropriating to his own use and benefit several thousands of money entrusted to his custody, a vacancy was thereby created in Indiana, and fearing the earth would loose its equipoise by this unequal distribution of its burden, Taylor leaped Kentucky's boundaries and lit flat footed upon the State of Indiana to hold that end of the world from flying skyward—see-saw like, in the indefinite absence of pilchering Neely. To accommodate the curious we will add that Taylor's departure did not disturb the equation in Kentucky; in truth it was hardly felt, owing to the fact that he left a sufficient number of his comrades behind to hold it down yet awhile. But when the law has taken its full course, and justice has been meted out to the miscreants, there will not be enough scoundrels left in Kentucky to show the devil our corner stones, for all who will not be hung or penitentiared will have abandoned the State in hot haste; and then, released of such dead weight, will our old world rise until it comes within kissing distance of Heaven itself, there to remain.

COL. D. G. COLSON, who killed Scott et. als. in the Capital Hotel at Frankfort last winter and whom the Republicans now have on the stump as an exponent of modern "civil liberty," is reported to have used the following language in a speech made by him at Salyersville, Ky., Oct. 5th:

"I only regret that there was not a red-handed mountaineer at Frankfort last winter during the drawing of the contest committee, secreted in a position overlooking Clerk Ed. Leigh with a drawn revolver to have demanded of him to shake the box from which the committee was drawn."

There was a very valid and sufficient reason why that "red-handed mountaineer" was not "secreted" with his shooter at that time. The Republicans, aided by the "Honest Election League" Democrats, had done a little buying and figuring. They had bought one Senator and had figured that with his vote they could control the organization of the Senate, and as the law requires that a majority of both Houses is necessary to seat the contestant, they had "figured" that Goebel would be unable to obtain the necessary majority of the Senate, and thereby hangs a tale. The fellow would not stay bought, and, after exploding his bomb, affiliated with the Democrats, thus upsetting the Republicans' plans and insuring the organization of both Houses by the Democrats. Then there were but two courses open to the "civil libertarians," either to kill off enough Democrats to leave a majority for the Republicans or to kill the contestant, Goebel. Subsequent events show they chose the latter course, and Taylor, usurping the power of a King, adjourned the Legislature for six days to give Goebel an opportunity to die and be buried, and sought to enforce his brutal and tyrannical plan by the use of a partisan militia. But there was one with whom they had not reckoned. He intercepted the completion of their hellish purpose. For four days Goebel survived, though the bullet of the assassin had torn him through from front to back. In the meantime the Legislature had refused to stay adjourned, and when at last they found a retreat secure from the progs of bayonets, they solemnly declared Wm. Goebel the lawfully elected Governor of Kentucky, and that decision was sustained from the lowest court in Kentucky to the highest in the United States, and this, in short, is the history of Republicanism in Kentucky. For that Republican bullet which took the life of Wm. Goebel sounded the death knell to Republicanism and Taylorism in old Kentucky.

WHO BRYAN WOULD NOT HAVE.

The McKinley organs are busy constructing a Cabinet for Mr. Bryan. Of course no one is in a position to speak authoritatively in this matter. No one knows just who he would have, but it is fairly well understood whom he would not have in his Cabinet, says the Shelby Sentinel.

He would not have a Secretary of State who would lick the boots of royalty.

He would not have a Secretary of the Treasury who would give to a coterie of National bankers the control of the public finances and free use of the public money.

He would not have an Attorney General owned by the trusts.

He would not have a Secretary of the Interior dominated by land grabbing corporations.

He would not have a Postmaster General who would conceal frauds that were perpetrated by Rathbone and Neeley.

He would not have a Secretary of the Navy controlled by the armor plate trust.

He would not have a Secretary of War controlled by the beef trust.

STORY WAS FALSE,

But Roosevelt Repeated It Even After He Had Been Given the Facts.

OMAHA, NEB., October 6.—Relative to the strenuous efforts of the Republicans to misrepresent Governor Poynter and to bolster up the falsehood that he referred to the regular soldiers as "hired butchers" or "hired soldiers," E. P. Savage, of Sargent, Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, was asked if he was correctly quoted by Governor Roosevelt, and he replied that he was not.

"I told the reporter," said Mr. Savage, "that I heard Governor Poynter speak at the soldiers' reunion at Superior, and he asked me if I heard the Governor use the expression, 'hired butchers' or hired soldiers,' and I expressly told him that I did not.

"What I did say was this: 'Governor Poynter referred to volunteer soldiers in very complimentary terms, and concerning the regular army he spoke of the soldiers as paid soldiers.'

Said Colonel Savage: "I have heard no other reference to the matter, and am sure Governor did not use the term referred to in the papers and by Roosevelt, and I particularly so informed the reporters."

Colonel Savage was given as one of the authorities by Roosevelt in his Nebraska tour for the statement attributed to Governor Poynter, that the regular soldiers were "hiring butchers at $15 a month."

John DeFosse, Sam Buchannon and John Buchannon were fined $1 and costs for a plain jail.

The trial of Frank Ratcliff, charged petit larceny, was continued until Oct. 19th at 10 o'clock a. m. He gave bond in the sum of $50, with G. A. Cassidy surety.

LADIES' and MISSES' TRIMMED HATS

Our stock of French Pattern Hats is now complete. We are showing a greater variety of styles this season than ever before. Our success in this department convinces us that ready-to-wear millinery has come to stay. The hats we show are patterned after the very latest styles shown in the larger cities of the East, and it stands to reason that, being purchased in such large quantities as we buy them, they can be sold very much cheaper than you will find 'em elsewhere. You may have some prejudice against buying a ready-to-wear Trimmed Hat. Examine ours and we believe you'll change your sentiments. Prices $1.75 to $5.98.

REAL EXCELLENCE IN DRESS GOODS.

Critical and reliable judges have pronounced our Fall Dress Goods stock the best ever shown in this community. The semi-annual visits of our buyer to the Eastern markets make the above assertion appear merely as a reasonable expectation. The very latest fabric creations are displayed here. In blacks you'll find the new Satin Cloths, Soliels, Lizard Cloths, Clay Worsteds, Cheviots, Venetians, in prices from 69c. to $2.25. And then, too, those Camel's Hair Golf Cloths, Plaids, Knickerbockers, Zibelines, &c., from 29c. to $1.98. It's a stock worthy of your inspection. You need not buy.

NEW MERCERIZED UNDERSKIRTS.

We haven't the space to say much about them. Briefly, they're the best we have ever shown. Nearly all come with large accordion plaits. Prices from 89c. to $4.98. Blacks and all colors.

KENTUCKY ODDFELLOWS.

Increase in Membership Over 1,100, the Largest in Years—Grand Lodge in Session.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky Oddfellows convened at Louisville Tuesday with a large representation from all parts of the State. As usual Maysville's two lodges come right up with the best in the State, Grand Warden A. D. Cole and ten representatives being in attendance.

Grand Master Hess called the lodge to order at 9 a. m. and eloquent addresses of welcome were delivered by Judge Thomas R. Gordon and the venerable Wm. W. Morris. Judge Gordon is a brother of Miss Fannie I. Gordon, of this city, and is one of Louisville's most zealous Oddfellows as well as one of her most respected citizens and able lawyers.

During the forenoon the Grand Lodge was honored by a visit from Grand Sire Cable, of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. His response to the cordial welcome was a touching and eloquent tribute to one of the greatest fraternal orders in existence.

In the appointment of the standing committees all the Maysville representatives were honored with positions.

The record of the order in this State the past year was one of the most gratifying in the history of the Grand Lodge. The net increase in membership was over 1,100. The meeting will close tomorrow.

We are showing an elegant line of goods suitable for bridal presents. Never has my stock been as large. We are offering 20 per cent. off of every article in the house. Prefer doing this rather than move the goods. Yours for bargains.

MURPHY, the jeweler.

The Limestone Debating Club, of the Sixth ward, has issued the following challenge to the Civil Liberty Club, of the same place, to be pulled off Friday night, Oct. 19th. "Resolved, That the Republican policy is a menace to Independence; and in favor of Combined Capital against Labor." The speakers for the Limestone Debating Club will be M. C. Daily and Wm. H. Meenach. The world waits with bated breath for the acceptance of this challenge, and then it will be a case of "lay it on McDuff and damned be him who first cries hold! enough!"

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there is no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS OF AMERICA.

Triennial Conclave to Be Held in Louisville
Aug. 27-30—Great Preparations
Being Made to Entertain
Visiting K. T.'s.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 10th.—Although ten months off the Knights Templars of Louisville have already begun active preparation for the triennial conclave, Knights Templars of America, to be held here Aug. 27-30, 1901. Thirty-six committees are at work and $100,000 is to be raised to properly entertain this great body of men. In the success of this conclave every section of Kentucky is vitally interested. It will not only be the biggest thing the State ever had, but the biggest thing the South ever had. It will bring to Kentucky a class of men and women who stand at the top of the ladder in their respective communities as business and professional men and ladies of known social prestige. It is a matter of record that they spend during every conclave from $250,000 to $1,500,000. Not a few of these Templars, with capital to invest, see new advantages in the conclave city or State in which the conclave is held and decide to locate there. In this connection there is a very promising feature for Kentucky being arranged for the coming triennial conclave. Nearly every big commandery is laying plans for a side trip to the interior of the State during conclave week. All want to see Kentucky and enjoy its hospitality, for this reason the Louisville triennial will be the largest in the history of Knight Templary, covering a period of nearly 100 years. Some commanderies will go to the Blue Grass, some to Mammoth Cave, some to Eastern Kentucky, while others will visit the Purchase and other sections. It is not improbable that stock farms, timber lands, coal and other fields will attract the eye of one or more wealthy Knights and result in the investment of much money in old Kentucky.

The Masons of the State will raise $35,000 of the amount necessary to entertain the 25,000 K. T.'s coming to Louisville. The Grand Commandery of Kentucky Knights Templars alone gave $10,000.

Rumor has it that a certain widow in the West End and a certain widower from a Kentucky city, will "hitch," as David Harem puts it, in the near future. You have got a guess coming to you.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Ladies' Day, October 17.

In order to assist in making LADIES' DAY (October 17) a success, and incidentally attracting attention to our advertising, we have decided to inaugurate a novel and interesting contest for the occasion, in which none but Ladies will be allowed to compete. We offer three prizes, which will be awarded as follows:

TO THE LADY FURNISHING THE MOST COMPLETE COLLECTION OF OUR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENT, TAKEN FROM BOTH THE BULLETIN AND LEDGER, WILL BE PRESENTED—

FIRST—A Handsome Set of Ladies' Embroidery Shears, Consisting of four pairs, ranging in size from three to six inches, contained in a neat Morocco leather case, price.....$3.00

SECOND—A Genuine Stag Carving Set. Not a cheap affair, but made of the very best steel by Jos. Elliot, of Sheffield, England, and which sells at retail for.....$1.75

THIRD—A Set of Nut Cracks and Picks, Composed of seven pieces, in a pretty silk-lined case, the money value of which is.....$1.00

Should there be a tie in the best collection, the first handed in will be regarded as the winner of prize No. 1, and so on.

CONDITIONS—Each batch of advertisements must be enclosed in a sealed envelope bearing the name and address of the contestant and handed in at our store in person. No collection will be considered without the advertisement taken from both the Bulletin and Ledger of the 15th inst. Families of the newspaper fraternity barred. Since this contest is arranged in honor of LADIES' DAY, offerings will be accepted on that date only, and but one prize will be awarded to a family.

LADIES, both old and young, anywhere, are invited to compete. A very little search may result in winning one of the prizes. Even if you don't capture first, you stand a good chance of gaining one of the others. Begin the collection of the ads. among your friends now. You have a week, and much may be accomplished in that time.

MILLS TO CLOSE.

Lack of Demand for Flour Given as the Cause.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., October 6.—Nearly one half of the flour mills operating in Minneapolis will close to-night for an indefinite length of time. The Washburn-Crosby and the Pillsbury milling companies report that 40 per cent. of their mills will close, and it is also reported that the Consolidated Milling Company will discontinue operating, although it is not learned how many mills will be affected. The officials report the cause due exclusively to the late market shortage in demand for flour. The foreign trade, it is declared, is practically dead, while the present stock of the mills will be sufficient to supply the domestic trade for some time to come.

Facts About Trusts.

The facts are that in the last two years of the McKinley administration there have been created 700 or 800 trusts in the United States, representing a capitalization of $5,000,000,000. McKinley's Attorney-General has made no attempt to enforce the anti-trust law, and these 700 or 800 trusts have flourished with the connivance, aid and support of the McKinley administration. These trusts are now contributing of their millions to re-elect their friend and supporter. The Republican Dingley tariff is one of the chief promoters of the trusts.

VALUABLE INFORMATION!

IT IS A FACT—

That according to the best medical authorities asthma and rheumatism are caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood.

IT IS A FACT—

That uric acid is a product of imperfect tissue changes and can only be eliminated through the kidneys.

IT IS A FACT—

That by eliminating this acid from the system the acknowledged cause of asthma, hay fever and rheumatism is removed.

IT IS A FACT—

That BOND'S SPECIFIC cures by its great purifying action on the liver and kidneys, thus enabling them to perform their functions properly and carry off the excess of acid from the system.

IT IS A FACT—

That all asthma and rheumatism cures contain dangerous drugs such as chloral, cocaine and morphine, and produces only temporary relief.

IT IS A FACT—

That BOND'S Asthma, Hay Fever and Rheumatism Cure is absolutely free from dangerous drugs, and is purely a vegetable compound and can be taken with impunity by any one, from the babe just born to the oldest man or woman.

IT IS A FACT—

That BOND'S SPECIFIC will most positively cure asthma, hay fever or rheumatism in spite of your incredulity.
